

Cloud Solution

The Kryptowire Portal is available via the internet for the customer to access

- Take advantage of a large farm of dedicated analysis servers
- Accessible world-wide with support for Multi-Factor Authentication (MFA)
- New features and updates available immediately upon release

Support

- Full featured support ticketing system available directly in the Kryptowire Portal
- 8am – 5pm EST support staff with additional coverage available if specified in SLA

On-Premise Front End & Storage Solution

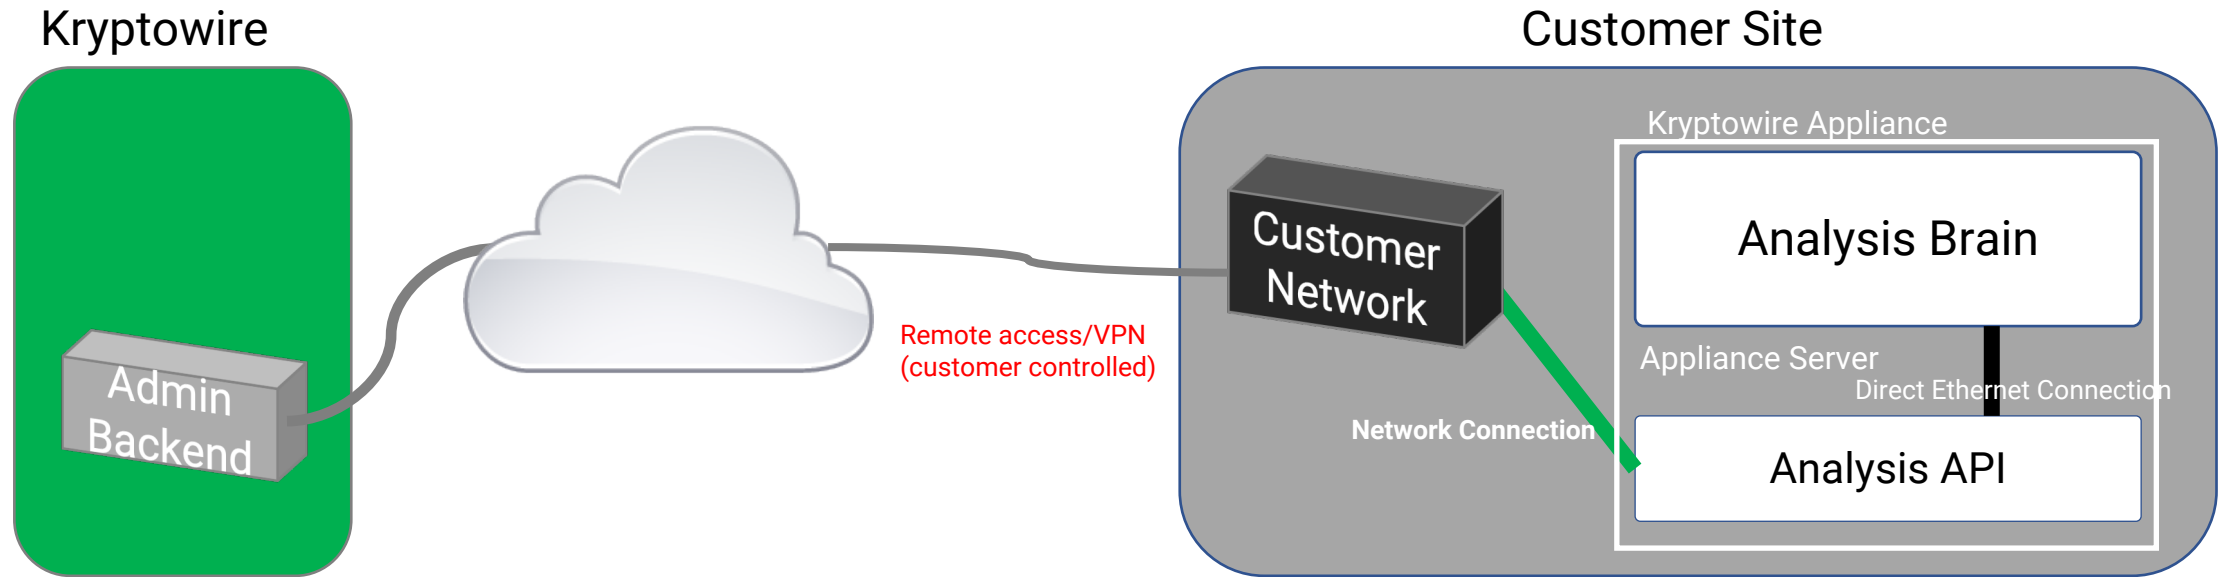

The Kryptowire Portal & Analysis Data are hosted locally on the customer network

- Take advantage of a large farm of dedicated analysis servers
- Host the main web application and store generated data locally
- Analysis features and updates available immediately upon release

Support

- 8am – 5pm EST support staff with additional coverage available if specified in SLA
- Remote access provided for maintenance and software updates by Kryptowire support personnel in the following form: VPN remote access (time based, on-demand or other method)

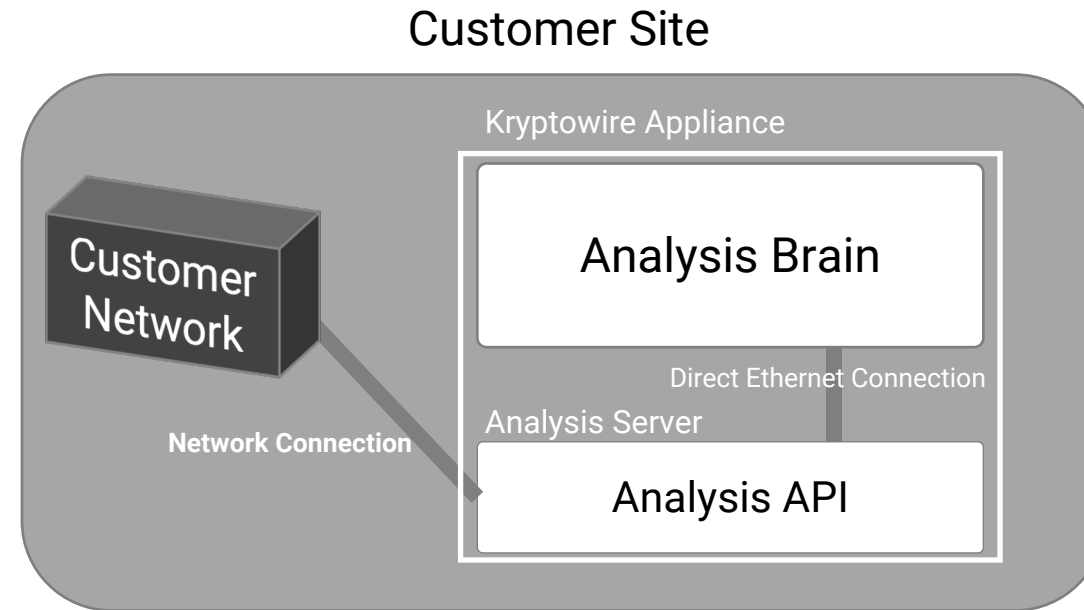

Managed On-Premise Setup

The Kryptowire Appliance is installed on customer's site with the following options:

- No internet access (optional)
- Remote access provided for maintenance and software updates by Kryptowire support personnel in the following form: VPN remote access (time based, on-demand or other method)
- Get the benefits of full on-premise hosting with a dedicated remote support channel
- Maintenance:
 - Software maintenance and updates to the appliance can be performed remotely by Kryptowire's service engineers or authorized parties in coordination with the customer.

Isolated On-Premise Setup

The Kryptowire Appliance is installed on customer's site with the following options:

- No internet access (optional)
- No remote access for maintenance and software updates by Kryptowire support personnel

Maintenance:

- Software maintenance updates to the appliance can be guided remotely by Kryptowire's service engineers or authorized parties in coordination with the customer.